

Brand Bothy Cookie Policy published 21.03.2023

Cookies

A cookie is a file containing an identifier (a string of letters and numbers) that is sent by a web server to a web browser and is then stored by the browser. The identifier is sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server.

They can be persistent (remain valid until a set expiry date) or session (expiring when the browser is closed). Cookies do not typically contain any information that personally identifies a user, but the personal information we store about you may be linked to the information stored by and obtained from cookies.

We use cookies for authentication, security and analysis as well as for your consent to the use of cookies more generally. The cookies used for these purposes are known as identify cookies.

Our service providers may use cookies, and those cookies may be stored on your computer when you visit our website.

We use Google Analytics to analyse the use of our website. Google Analytics gathers information about website use by means of cookies. The information gathered relating to our website is used to create reports about the use of our website. Google's privacy policy is available at: <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>.
